DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A pure, cream of tartar powder
Its fame is world wide
No alum; no phosphate of lime

The poisonous nature of alum is so well known that the sale of condiments and whiskey containing it is prohibited by law.

In buying baking powder examine the label and take only a brand shown to be made with cream of tartar.

Tent Fell on 1,500 Persons.

A terrific hail, rain and wind storm late Sunday night, lasting forty minutes, ruined crops in a wide territory, unroofed buildings and demolished trees at Prairie Du Chien, Wis.

Hail four inches deep was piled up on the walks and trees two feet in diameter were twisted off. Washouts on the railroads are numerous and indications are that the storm covered a swath forty-five miles wide.

Two big tents in which the Chautauqua is being held at La Crosse Interstate Fair Grounds were blown down on 1,500 people, but none was seriously hurt. Capt. R. P. Hobson was the principal speaker at the Chautauque, but he had left the tent before the storm broke.

Born In Iowa.

Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. We know how good it is from long experience in the use of it. In fact, when in El Paso, Texas, the writer's life was saved by the prompt use of this remedy. We are now engaged in the mercantile business at Narcoossee, Fla., and have introduced the remedy here. It has proven very successful and is constantly growing in favor.—ENNIS BROS. This remedy is for sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee. June

Louisiana Racing Bill Passed.

The Locke anti-betting racing bill passed the Louisiana Senate and becomes a law within thirty days. The supporters of the measure say that the law will practically abolish the race tracks that have flourished around New Orleans for years.

Badly Sprained Ankle Cured.

Three years ago our daughter sprained her ankle and had been suffering terribly for two days and nights—had not slept a minute. Mr. Stallings, of Butler, Tenn., told us of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. We went to the store that night and got a bottle of it and bathed her ankle two or three times and she went to sleep and had a good night's rest. The next morning she was much better and in a short time could walk around and had no more trouble with her ankle.—E. M. BRUMITT, Hampton, Tenn. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by W. T. Brooks. "You need no other guarantee." June

No Need of Suffering from Rheumatism.

It is a mistake to allow rheumatism to become chronic, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of the relief which it affords. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by W. T. Brooks. "You need no other guarantee." June

No clue has yet been found that will lead to the apprehension of the thief.

A Silent Repudiation.

William J. Bryan gave out a statement Tuesday in which he says the Republican platform is a silent repudiation of every reform which the President advocated. The instrument he regards as a sweeping victory for the stand pat element of the party.

Declares Women Lack Humor.

Lida Rose McCabe says that women are lacking in humor and that most of them either take a hyperserious view of life or look at it from an ultra-frivolous standpoint. Women are too highly conventionalized to be able to appreciate humor with the keenness of men from their broader outlook.

Good Work.

The April term of the Court of Appeals, just closed, disposed of 313 cases, as follows: Opinions certified, 1; dismissed, 18; affirmed, 176; reversed, 118; petitions sustained, 2; petitions overruled, 66.

Will Be Returned if Needed.

Acting Gov. Cox believes that the troubles with the night riders are practically now over and as the use of the military has been exceedingly expensive to the State, he thinks the soldiers can be recalled. He does not desire to handicap the authorities in the counties where they think the soldiers are needed, but in many instances he thinks the soldiers can be called in and he is going to try to relieve all the troops in the State from active duty just as soon as possible. The Governor says that this does not mean that the soldiers will not be ordered out if the occasion requires it and the county officials ask for them, but simply means that he does not want any more on duty than are absolutely essential. If the occasion should demand, the soldiers will be ordered back to the districts from which they are being taken now.

Dismal Professions.

The question was recently asked in a newspaper: "What is the most dismal of professions?" Among those that occurred to us as having a claim to be so considered were grave digging, scavenging, listening to congressional orations and the writing of poems—or articles—that nobody reads. The washing of dishes may be made interesting if done scientifically.

There's Nothing to It.

A Louisville man just home from a two weeks' stay in Iowa has great faith in Bryan's election, having been told by leading Republicans that Bryan would carry the State. "Bryan," said a prominent lawyer to the gentleman referred to, "only lacked about 20,000 votes of carrying Iowa the first time he ran. He has made more friends now, and will carry the State. The nomination of Taft was the most pathetic spectacle ever produced in the political panorama of America, the one man with the big stick dictating every movement, even setting aside his special friend, Senator Beveridge, and declining to let him deliver the keynote speech."
